Homework Policy - 2017/2018

Member of Working Group

- All Staff participated in the drawing up of this policy.

Why give homework?

- To re-inforce what the child learns during the day.
- To provide a link between teacher and parent.
- To develop a child's concentration skills and develop a work ethic.
- Homework is meant to be achievable by a child, i.e. it provides an opportunity to practise work already done. It is normally prepared by the teacher in class. Sometimes with senior classes, some homework is designed to challenge children's ability and provide opportunities for creativity.
- Children are expected to do their homework to the best of their individual ability - no more, no less.

How often is homework given?

- Homework is given on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays but not on Fridays.

There are two exceptions:

1. If homework has been neglected during the week.
 2. In senior classes some project work may be undertaken at weekends.
- Sometimes at the discretion of the class teacher or the principal, children are given "Homework off" as a treat, reward or as acknowledgement of some special occasion.

What is the content of homework?

- Ideally homework will contain a balance between reading tasks, learning tasks and written tasks.
- This balance is not always possible and can vary considerably from day to day. The individual ability of the pupil is also taken into consideration. However, it should be noted that homework time devoted to reading and learning is as important as written work.
- Homework will regularly contain reading, spellings, tables, written work, pieces to be "learned by heart", drawing/colouring, collecting information/items and finishing work started in class.
- Children often feel that reading and "learning by heart" is not real homework. Parents can play an important role in listening to reading and items to be learned ensuring this work is done well.

How much time for homework?

The following are guidelines for times spent at homework. Different children will complete the same homework in different lengths of time. Time Spent will vary from day to day and also from the beginning to the end of the school year. It is important to remember that it is the quality and not the quantity of homework that matters. The following are general guidelines only:

Junior Infants	0-10 minutes
Senior Infants	Up to 15 minutes
Rang 1	Up to 20 minutes
Rang 2	Up to 30 minutes
Rang 3	Up to 40 minutes
Rang 4	Up to 50 minutes
Rang 5	Up to 1 hour
Rang 6	Up to 1 hour

Junior/Senior Infants

Jolly phonics/reading.

Activities to consolidate work done in the classroom.eg. Finishing work not completed in class/worksheets.

First/Second Class

Reading/spellings.

Math, tables

English sentences/ sentences from other subjects.

Second

All of the above plus Irish spelling (4 per night).

Third/Fourth Class

Reading.

Spellings English/Irish

Writing: English and or work based on other subjects during school day.

Finishing off work not completed during school day.

Maths.Tables.Mathematical activities.

Gaeilge/Abairi.

Fifth/Sixth Class

Same as above.

Project work may also be undertaken at the weekend at the discretion of the individual teacher.

Homework may be differentiated for pupils at the discretion of the teacher.

How much help should parents give?

- Parent should try to help their children with homework by:
 - ❖ Providing them with a suitable place and time to do their homework.
 - ❖ To prevent interruptions or distractions, like T.V. or other children.
- Children should do written homework themselves and parents should only help when the child has difficulty.
- If a child has difficulty with homework, the parents should help the child to overcome the difficulty with further explanation or examples, but not by actually doing the homework for the child. In this case the parent should write a note to the teacher explaining the problem.
- Shared reading is not homework in the regular sense and it is simply meant to be an enjoyable exercise between parent and child. If it's not enjoyable, shared reading should not be done.

How often should parents monitor homework?

- Parents should check and sign a child's homework journal every evening.
- The pupil's journal is an important record of the child's homework. It is also a valuable means of communication between parents and teachers.
- Ideally, all written messages to your child's teacher should be put in the homework journal (additional pages available at the end of the journal).
- Please check that your child records his/her homework neatly in the correct page and ticks each item of homework when completed.
- Notes and other letters to parents are folded and placed in the current day of the homework journal. Please check your child's journal for such notes on a regular basis.

How often do teachers monitor homework?

- Ideally teachers like to check homework on a daily basis. As children get older and learn to work independently, some items of homework are checked less often e.g. every second day or once per week.
- Some items of homework (and classwork) may be checked by children themselves under the direction of the teacher. This can be useful part of the learning process for children.

When should parents communicate with the teachers about homework?

- When your child cannot do homework due to family circumstances.
- When your child cannot do homework because she/he cannot understand some aspect.

When should homework be done?

Each family situation is different - both parents working, child minders, etc. Ideally, homework should be done before any television is watched soon after school while your child is still fresh; however, some children need a break before starting homework.

Remember

Homework is a stressful experience between parent and child, something is wrong! This leads to poor learning and defeats the whole purposes. Should this happen on a regular basis, please contact the class teacher.

PLEASE NOTE

- Each child from First to Sixth class will be required to buy the Fallons homework diary.
- Should your child be absent it is not necessary to complete homework that was given during that time.
- It is not possible for teacher to prepare work for children who are absent due to illness or holidays.

This policy will be reviewed as and when is necessary.
